A decorative arrangement featuring a light-colored fur rug in the foreground. Behind it, a square pillow with a geometric pattern of beige, brown, and grey rectangles is positioned. To the left, a striped pillow in shades of brown and beige is partially visible. The background consists of a dark, textured wall and a light-colored, possibly stone or concrete, surface.

A close-up photograph of several decorative pillows resting on a thick, white, shaggy fur rug. The pillows feature various patterns: one has a dark teal and cream floral motif, another has a repeating geometric diamond pattern in teal and cream, and a third has a repeating floral pattern in dark teal and cream. The pillows have frayed edges. The background is softly blurred, showing more of the rug and a hint of a yellow object.
